

Regency Assurance helped the community mark Thailand's National Children's Day by joining over 200 students and teachers at Koh Jum School's celebrations. Regency supported the event with donations of gifts, game prizes and ice cream. This year, the Children's Day motto, as selected by Prime Minister Srettha Thavisin, translates as "Broaden horizons, foster creativity, respect diversity, and join forces in building democracy." The children joined the event dressed as what they want to be when they are older.

Rights of the Child

- World Children's Day commemorates the Declaration of the Rights of the Child by the UN General Assembly in 1959.
- The day champions the rights, voices, and lives of children.
- It is a celebration of children and a time where we acknowledge our responsibilities towards them.
- Regency continues to support local communities to empower the next generation.

COMMUNITY GOALS

- ✓ To nurture children's unique talents
- ✓ To encourage children to unleash their boundless creativity
- ✓ To acknowledge and to uphold children's rights

World Children's Day directly contributes towards the following United Nations Agenda 2030 Sustainable Development Goals.

VOLUNTEERS

Regency's Head of Community Engagement, Kate Tebbet teamed up with Khun Nettaya Wongsachon from the local community to run some traditional fairground games and dish out the ice cream. The main event of the day was enjoying the children's dance performances.
